

Knowledge Base Evaluation Criteria Discussion Guide

1. All required sections are present in the correct order.
2. Every section includes realistic time allocation.
3. Total timing aligns with session duration.
4. Introduction includes greeting, purpose, expectations, and consent.
5. Warm-Up builds rapport and relevant participant context.
6. Core Discussion covers all major research goals.
7. Core sections map to Collated Research Questions.
8. Questions are open-ended and conversational.
9. Questions are behavior-focused where relevant.
10. No leading, biased, or loaded wording.
11. No multi-part or confusing questions.
12. Useful probes are included under key questions.
13. Questions flow from broad to specific.
14. Section transitions feel natural.
15. Stimulus tasks are clear when included.
16. Multiple user types receive separate tailored guides.
17. Wrap-Up captures final insights and closes clearly.
18. Language is participant-friendly and jargon-free.
19. Guide is practical to run in a live session.
20. Final output is execution-ready with minimal edits.