

User: Organizer

Experiences	Awareness	Learning	Account Management	Onboarding	Campaign Creation	Campaign Management	Payments	Integration	Communication/Community	Recognition/Rewarding	Help & Support	Advocacy
Scenarios	Organizer gets aware about the product through word of mouth from his/her friends/colleagues/management	Organizer wants to learn about the platform by watching the product walkthrough videos	Organizer creates an account by providing necessary information required (name, mail, password, password confirmation)	Organizer gets onboarded onto the platform by being guided through product tour	Organizer wants to choose from various categories (raffles, etc) for campaign creation	Organizer wants to track the amount raised, items sold, people who has registered to an event, etc	Organizer wants to handle donor payments for a specific campaign	Organizer wants to integrate the application with marketing and advertising tools like Facebook Ads and Google Ads, or accounting tools, like QuickBooks	Organizer can choose to opt for opening a community experience for all the donors for their campaign	Organizer wants to give a personal and exclusive recognition to contributors for their donation	Organizer checks the documentation available via platform to make the best use of the platform	Organizer wants to share the referral link to his/her friends, etc

	Organizer gets aware through social media like facebook, instagram, etc	Organizer wants to learn about the platform from social media	Organizer creates an account through social accounts such as google, facebook, etc	Organizer undergoes a persona-based onboarding, based on his/her responses to a short survey	Organizer can choose to go with team (peer-to-peer) fundraising model for running campaign	Organizer wants to extend the existing campaign as the targeted goal hasn't reached	Organizer wants to save and let his/her payment information remembered for next transactions	Organizer wants to integrate with MailChimp/any to easily import contacts and send marketing emails and updates as the campaign progresses.	Organizer can choose to reach out to the donors by checking the donor list for purpose such as receiving feedback through quick surveys, etc	Organizer wants to thank the donors for supporting them in their campaign	Organizer checks the FAQs to gain clarity on how the platform work, etc	Organizer writes a review on play store, etc
	Organizer receives referral link and gets aware about the product	Organizer wants to learn about the application by reading the blogs	Organizer tries to login into his/her/his account	Organizer is guided through a checklist with all the tasks to completed for making the best use of the platform	Organizer wants to create a campaign by leveraging predefined templates available and customize as per the requirement and need	Organizer wants to mark a campaign run as a favourite	Organizer wants to get insight around amount that goes as a share for the platform cost of the total fund raised through campaign	Organizer wants to check Google Analytics to view insights into visitor characteristics and behaviors when visiting a website to manage the campaign in accordance with it	Organizer wants to build relationship with the donors by communicating with them and start a chat forums	Organizer wants to announce the reward winners publicly on social media	Organizer wants to seek support on how to get tips/suggestions on what campaign to run to meet their organization goal of a specific cause	Organizer shares his/her experience with the platform by writing a testimonial

	Organizer gets aware of the product by coming across in news, awards announcements, etc	Organizer wants to learn about the platform from forums/threads/comments, etc	Organizer provides the referral invite link received from his/her friends and tries to login to the platform	Organizer is caught attention to certain product features through hotspots without interrupting his/her flow	Organizer wants to create a custom campaign from scratch	Organizer wants to track the behaviour of participants visiting the campaign		Organizer wants to easily integrate with other third party tools such as MailChimp, etc via Zapier/any	Organizer wants to send promotion emails to previous donors who supported in earlier campaign when launching new campaigns	Organizer wants to give away prizes to incentivize participants who helped to raise funds for the campaign	Organizer wants to contact RallyUp to report an issue, etc	Organizer creates a post on social media by thanking platform for helping reach their organisation goal to raise fund for the cause
		Organizer explore the product website and learns about the product - benefits it offers, etc	Organizer tries to login into his/her/his account but forgets his/her password	Organizer gets a quick onboard explaining key features of the platform and how to use	Organizer wants to seek assistance in creating productive campaign so that he can make the most of it	Organizer wants to plan for strategies to improve traffic based on the statistics		Organizer can choose to build meaningful connections easily with personalized automation by integrating with tools like ActiveCampaign, etc	Organizer wants to run a livestream/host an AMA sessions with all the donors post a successful campaign		Organizer wants to get guided about measures to be taken for effective launch of the campaign i.e, time of launch, etc

		Organizer wants to learn about the product by signing up for a free demo and exploring the product	Organizer views his/her account information		Organizer creates a campaign and saves as a draft			Organizer can choose process donations seamlessly with stripe
		Organizer goes over the success stories/case studies of other fundraiser organizations that used RallyUp for running their campaigns	Organizer wants to make changes to his/her profile		Organizer wants to make edits to the campaign saved before publishing

			Organizer wants reset his/her password		Organizer wants to gauge the effectiveness of the campaign & credibility for the campaign created before launching and make adjustments accordingly
			Organizer wants to logout from his/her account		Organizer wants to preview the campaign before it is being published and make live

			Organizer wants to deactivate his/her account		Organizer wants to choose a data & time when the campaign get published (manual reminder to launch or automatically launch)
					Organizer wants to publish/launch the campaign created
					Organizer wants to start promoting a hashtag to create the buzz from donors

					Organizer can choose to set a pricing for the items on sale that can includes the cost of the platform/if any delivery cost involved/etc or not
Insights	Word-of-mouth largely drives majority of new organizer acquisition		Social login is known to reduces friction for initial signup	Users often tend to skip product tours in favor of diving into campaign creation	Organizers often avoid using templates because they lack the flexibility to customize them to match their organization's branding.					Personalized recognition is known to increases donor retention for future campaigns

	The platfoprms have significantly limited brand visibility compared to competitors like GoFundMe				Organizers expect to seek expertise on how to better engage visitors/donors
					Organizers creating a campaign lack visibility into how the final campaign will appear to donors, creating uncertainty about the presentation until the campaign is fully built and ready for publishing.							