

Knowledge Base — Evaluation Criteria for Research Plan

- All required sections are present in the correct order.
- Background & Purpose is concise, relevant, and decision-oriented.
- Research Goals are declarative, specific, and actionable.
- Goals are organized by user type when applicable.
- Research Questions directly map to Goals.
- Research Questions are specific, answerable, and well grouped.
- Methodology fits the objective and includes execution details.
- Stimuli / Flows are included only when relevant.
- Participant count is realistic for the chosen method.
- Participant criteria are behavioral, measurable, and relevant.
- Segmentation is used only when meaningful.
- Screener questions are clear, usable, and use correct tags: [Accept], [May Accept], [Reject].
- Includes one open-ended screening question for validation.
- Incentives are appropriate and clearly defined.
- Stakeholders follow the DACSI format correctly.
- Logistics clearly assign ownership and support execution.
- Deliverables are useful and listed as names only.
- Timeline is realistic, milestone-based, and includes ownership.
- Output is internally consistent across all sections.
- Final output is execution-ready with no fabricated data.